

Union Prefers Plant Layoffs To 4-Day Week

CHICAGO (P)—Two unions have rejected International Harvester Co.'s proposal of a four-day week in lieu of layoffs for production workers.

The independent Farm Equipment Workers union, which claims to represent 23,000 workers in eight Harvester plants, and the CIO United Auto Workers, representing 30,000 in 16 plants turned down the idea.

A company spokesman said Thursday the four-day week was proposed because declining sales of farm equipment and trucks makes employment cutbacks necessary.

The number of workers to be laid off, the plants affected and the layoff date has not been decided, the spokesman said. The company employs 58,000 production workers in 21 plants throughout the country.

Current contracts between the unions and Harvester call for a five-day week. The Farm Equipment Workers' rejection was announced here almost as soon as the four-day week was proposed. CIO-UAW representatives rejected the proposal in negotiations at Indianapolis.

A UAW spokesman said a four-day week would jeopardize pension benefits for employees nearing the retirement age of 65.

Rebel Chief Castillo Elected President Of New Guatemala Junta

By CARLOS ESCUDERO
GUATEMALA (P)—Col. Carlos Castillo Armas finally stood at the top of the political heap in Guatemala today. The government announced the rebel chief was elected president of a new three-man junta, the fifth government turnover in less than two weeks.

Col. Elfigo Monzon, temporary chief of the five-man junta in charge since last Friday, remained on the new ruling body. The third member, Maj. Enrique Olive, was defense minister in the provisional government which the rebel leader set up after his army of Guatemalan exiles invaded their homeland from neighboring Honduras June 18.

A government decree Thursday night said Castillo's election was effective immediately.

The other two members of the previous junta—Lt. Col. Mauricio Dubois and Lt. Col. Jose Luis Cruz—resigned. It was speculated the two would find diplomatic assignments, one likely in Washington.

Castillo's drive into Guatemala from Honduras set off a series of rapid government shakeups. First, ex-President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman, whose government had had Communist support, quit on June 27. A junta headed by Col. Carlos Enrique Diaz, his army chief of staff, took over for one day.

Then Monzon—like Castillo, a strong anti-Communist—stepped in. Through mediation efforts of U.S. Ambassador John E. Peurifoy, Monzon came to terms with Castillo in the El Salvador talks, and they joined forces last Friday.

Red Arms Useless
Meanwhile the government

moved fast to consolidate its power, tightening the guard around foreign embassies yesterday to prevent escape of an estimated 900 political refugees.

The New York Times said in a dispatch from Mexico City today that some of the arms the Iron Curtain countries recently shipped to the ousted Arbenz government were useless. Some were duds, worn out or entirely unsuitable for warfare in Guatemala, the paper quoted Guatemalan army officers as saying.

This was one reason the army failed to put up an effective fight against Castillo's rebels, it was said.

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (P)—Seven-year-old Steven Mussalem, pretending to be a calf, died Thursday after his brother Neil, 10, snatched him with a lariat and a riderless horse dragged him 500 feet.

The horse ran to the corral, dragging Steven, when Neil dismounted.

Girl, 15, Gives Tip To Solve $11,459 Robbery In Detroit

DETROIT (P)—A bright-eyed, 15-year-old Italian girl got credit today for the probable breakup of a robber gang and solution of a bank holdup mystery.

Mary Lou Mangano, fruit peddler's daughter, gave the information which led to a massive police raid on an east side house Thursday and two arrests.

Seized were Simon H. Thompson, 37, and his wife, Gloria, 22, mother of two children—both named in federal warrants in connection with the $11,459 robbery of the Trenton State Bank June 28.

The raid, by 17 policemen armed with machine guns and tear gas, was at Mary Lou's own home.

Thompson, an ex-convict, was wanted as one of the two robbers who held up the bank in the downtown city. His wife, Gloria Cardon Reyes Thompson, was wanted as a material witness.

The second man sought, Mahlon J. Fehl, 28, apparently avoided a police trap laid at the home after the two arrests. Police believe he took the bank loot away with him when he left the home Wednesday night.

Police seized the Thompsons while they were eating lunch in an upstairs apartment of the Mangano home.

Czechs Ignore Kidnaping Note

FRANKFURT, Germany (P)—The American Embassy in Prague said today that Communist Czechoslovakia so far has ignored U.S. demands for the release of seven American soldiers arrested on July 4.

"We have heard nothing from the Czech government since the State Department note," said attache Garret Ackerson in a telephone interview.

The U.S. note charged the Czech with abduction of the soldiers—a captain and six enlisted men—and demanded their immediate return. The Czechs claimed the soldiers were on an espionage mission.

The men, stationed in Germany, were seized by Czech frontier guards last Sunday when they went sightseeing along the border.

Blast Injures 22 At Gary, Ind., Plant

GARY, Ind. (P)—Twenty-two workers were injured, two critically, in an explosion Thursday in a 9,500-gallon vat of caustic soda at an experimental detinning plant at the west edge of Gary.

Cause of the blast, at the plant of the Vulcan Detinning Co., was not determined.

The explosion blew a five-cubic foot metal casting through the roof, 70 feet high, and near busy Cliff Avenue. The roof was blown off, and part of the front wall was blown out. Tin cans being reclaimed in the vat were blown against the plant office building 75 feet away, and windows in the office were broken.

Several firemen were burned by the caustic solution during rescue operations.

Pacific Lumber Mills Strikers Will Negotiate

PORTLAND, Ore. (P)—Negotiations between major employers and the two big lumber unions now on strike in the Pacific Northwest will resume next week.

Spokesmen representing a number of the largest mills in the region announced late Thursday that they were ready to attend meetings to be arranged by the federal mediation service. The first is expected Wednesday.

The unions, the CIO Woodworkers and the AFL Lumber and Sawmills Workers, previously had announced they were willing.

There were no signs, however, that either side yet was ready to give up major points. The unions have asked a 12½-cent hourly increase, insisting it was overdue. Employers have argued the industry can stand no cost increase.

Those divergent views led Thursday to the strike being extended to four plywood mills of the big M and M Woodworking Co. Some 2,000 men were idled by the walkouts at Portland, Albany and Lyons, Ore., and Eureka, Calif.

The 19-day-old strike has been fairly peaceful.

Death Penalty Sought For Peacetime Spies

WASHINGTON (P)—Peacetime spying would be punishable by death, for the first time in U. S. history, under an administration bill passed 323-0 by the House yesterday. The measure now goes to the Senate.

The bill would also remove the present 10-year limit on prosecution for espionage. And it would broaden the espionage and sabotage laws to make them apply to germ and atomic warfare.

Senate Leaders Revise Foreign Aid Provisions

WASHINGTON (P)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee appeared set to stamp approval today on a wait-and-see plan for dealing with the prospect of Red China's seating in the United Nations.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.), author of the toned-down proposal, forecast a favorable verdict in advance of a formal vote scheduled behind closed doors. He was joined by Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), acting committee chairman.

Up To President
Knowland, the Senate GOP leader, said in an interview he expects "tremendous" support from both Republican and Democrats for his amendment, apparently revised at administration urging from a stiffer version.

The amendment would write into the pending 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid bill:

1. Another congressional statement in opposition to admitting Communist China to the U. N.

2. A request to President Eisenhower—if Red China is seated in either the Security Council or the Assembly—for a statement to Congress on the implications to U. S. foreign policy of the action "to

(Please Turn To Page 6, Col. 8)

WASHINGTON (P)—The Senate Agriculture Committee, after voting a new rebuff for the Eisenhower administration, sought today to complete drafting its version of a general new farm program.

In advance of the closed session, Chairman Aiken (R-Vt.) said it might not be possible to take final action today, but that he hoped the section-by-section voting at least could be finished.

The committee voted 8-7 late Thursday to recommend high price supports for four important livestock feeds—oats, barley, rye and grain sorghums. Aiken said the proposal was offered by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and had been voted down earlier in the day 9-6.

Price supports on the four crops would be fixed by a formula which Aiken said would put them "at about 82 per cent of parity when corn was at 90 per cent." Price supports on these feed grains are now permissive.

The committee had previously voted 8-7 to recommend another year of rigid price supports at 90 per cent of parity on wheat, cotton, corn, rice and peanuts. The sixth field crop defined as "basic"—tobacco—will be supported at 90 per cent under existing laws.

The committee said the architectural contract was entered into without approval of the attorney general and asked Millard whether the contract was binding.

As a result of the mixup, the committee said, the 1954 Legislature, had to appropriate $100,000 to obtain plans for a new prison at Ionia.

The committee said it was continuing its investigation to determine who ignored the Legislature's mandate.

Aud. Gen. John B. Martin said the Leinweber firm already has been paid about $20,000 of the $30,000 total.

Meanwhile, the governor's office conceded that an emergency outside dormitory at Ionia Reformatory would cost "way beyond" the $75,000 which Gov. Williams advocated Thursday.

A spokesman for the Department of Administration said the cost would run $225,000 to $350,000. Williams said yesterday he would call the "little Legislature" July 26 to ask for funds to build the special dormitory and relieve prison congestion by 150 men.

The children were sitting in the back seat.

Uninjured, the parents were reported in a state of shock and collapse.

GREEN BAY, Wis. (P)—The operating employees of one of the shortest railroad lines in the nation went out on strike today.

The four men who run the trains for the Ahnapee and Western Railway over its 34-mile route were authorized Thursday to strike by national headquarters of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

A union spokesman said the railroad planned to change its operating procedure without union consultation and that would be a contract violation.

The road reportedly contemplated laying off one of its two engineers.

An official at road headquarters here said no comment on the strike would be made until later.

The Ahnapee and Western, a branch of the Green Bay and Western railroad, operates between Sturgeon Bay and Casco Junction, Wis., a distance of 34 miles.

French Promise All-Out Fight To Hold Hanoi

By JOHN RODERICK

SAIGON, Indochina (P)—French Union armored units and Vietnamese regulars clashed in a bloody engagement 20 miles south of Hanoi today.

The armored units encountered the Communist-led rebel force south of Bao Thon, a tiny village on the road between Phu Ly and Hanoi. After several hours of savage fighting the Vietnamese force withdrew, leaving 108 corpses behind, the French command reported.

The French commander, Maj. Gen. Paul Ely, pledged Thursday night that there would be an all-out fight for Hanoi. He denied spreading rumors that the north Indochina capital would be abandoned to the rebels.

Observers recalled that the French high command made a similar vow to defend the entire Red River delta only a month before it abandoned the southern third of the key area to the rebels.

Tourist Council Will Advertise

LANSING (P)—An intensified newspaper advertising program to increase autumn tourist traffic was approved by the Michigan Tourist Council Thursday.

The council also adopted a resolution endorsing construction of an international bridge connecting the United States and Canada at Sault Ste. Marie.

"With the ferry bottleneck relieved by bridge construction at the Straits, the flow of motorists between Canada and the United States will increase sharply to the great benefit of both countries," council chairman Robert W. Budd said.

Chicago Killer Gambles, Loses

CHICAGO (P)—A man convicted of one murder and accused of three others Thursday gambled with his own life on his ability to beat a lie detector test—and lost.

Vincent Ciucci, 27, under a 20-year prison sentence for the murder of his wife, Anne, 28, asked for and got a lie detector test—but on the condition that the evidence unearthed be introduced at his next trial, for the slaying of one of his three children.

Mrs. Ciucci, Ciucci's daughters Angeline, 4, Virginia, 8, and son Vincent Jr., 9, were found shot to death in their apartment after a fire Dec. 5. He is awaiting trial for the slaying of Angeline.

Ciucci, who contended he was sleeping when the slayings occurred, was asked by polygraph operator John Reid whether he fired the murder gun, whether he shot Angeline, whether he caused the fire, whether he shot his wife and three children, and if he knew who shot them. Ciucci answered no each time.

Reid, an independent consultant, said the report showed conclusively that Ciucci lied each time.

"He flunked the test on all counts," Reid said.

Daughter Missing 2 Years Turns Up As Airman's Wife

ALBUQUERQUE (P)—A teen-age girl whose disappearance from her Pittsburgh home two years ago prompted a nationwide search turned up here Thursday night as a contented wife and mother.

As Peggy Ann Hewston, she fled her home Aug. 24, 1952, when she was 15. Now she is Mrs. Tom Cory, wife of an Air Force sergeant.

"I had been planning it for a long time," she said in recalling her disappearance. "I couldn't stand that school (Edgewood High School) any longer, and my folks wouldn't let me go to another one. I had saved $70 and I knew I was going to do it. I didn't even leave a note."

She changed her name and fled to Albuquerque, where she met and married Air Force S.Sgt. Tom Cory, 23, who attended her church here.

Now a mother of six weeks, the 17-year-old Mrs. Cory says she "feels much better" since her deception is over.

7 Year Old Boy Killed By Car

Lowell Horst, 7 year old son of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Horst, Rte. 1, Escanaba, was instantly killed at 6:25 last evening when he was struck by a car driven by Clayton LaFave, 20, Rte. 1, Escanaba, on county road 414, 3 1-2 miles west of the Hilltop Drive-in Theatre. The father of the accident victim is the pastor of the Mennonite Church at Soo Hill.

The youth was riding his bicycle out of the driveway of the Carl Mosier residence on the north side of the highway when he was struck by the left front fender of LaFave's automobile. George Larson Jr., 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Larson, Rte. 1, Escanaba, was riding a bicycle directly behind Horst and the two youths were headed for the Larson residence across the highway.

LaFave, a gas station attendant, was travelling west on the highway and said that he did not see Horst because the driveway from which the boys emerged to County Road 414 was obscured by heavy shrubbery. He said he was travelling approximately 55 mph. The boy's body was thrown 77 feet from the point of impact.

Sheriff Wm. Miron and Under-sheriff Cully Johnson who investigated the accident called it "unavoidable." They were called by Mrs. George Larson who witnessed the accident.

County Coroner Thomas McInerney reported that death was due to internal injuries and concussion.

Born July 13, 1946 at Reading, Pa., the Horst boy had been a resident of Wells Township for the past 15 months. He attended the Newhall School, having just completed the second grade.

Besides his parents, Lowell is survived by two brothers, David and Devon, and one sister, Janalee, all at home; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer K. Horst, and the maternal grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Ira S. Johns, Goshen, Ind.

Friends may begin calling at the Anderson Funeral Home Sunday afternoon.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the Anderson Funeral Home chapel with Rev. Clarence Troyer of Engadine officiating. Burial will be made in Lakeview Cemetery.

Menominee Home Destroyed By Fire

MENOMINEE—Fire of undetermined origin at 4:30 p. m. Wednesday destroyed the newly completed ranch-type home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Daniel, who reside on a cross road off M-35, about five miles from the city. Besides wiping out the home, the fire destroyed practically all of its contents, including household furnishings and personal belongings. The $10,000 loss was covered by only $3,000 insurance on the dwelling.

Daniel, a Marathon Corporation employe, had cut timbers for the home from his own land and the 7-room house was only recently completed, after nearly eight years of work by Daniel in his spare time.

Steelworkers Want Raise At Soo, Ont.; Strike Threatened

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont. (AP)—Canadian steelworkers pressed today for wage increases equal to those won in the past year by workers in U. S. mills.

A vote here Thursday night by the local of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO-CCL) gave the union executive committee a mandate to call 5,000 members out on strike if a wage dispute with the Algoma Steel Corp. cannot be settled. Similar action was taken by 7,000 members of the union in Hamilton.

The companies have refused to pass on to 15,800 Canadian workers gains the union made in the United States. As a result the spread between the basic rates in the two countries has widened to 13 1/2 cents an hour — the difference between the $1.57 in the United States and $1.43 1/2 in Canada.

Cool And Sunny Local Forecast

Temperatures will reach the middle 70's inland today, but will continue between 65 and 70 along the shore, says S. E. Decker of the Escanaba Weather Bureau.

At 10:30 this morning, the mercury reached 66, but due to a sudden shifting of the wind to the south and the influence of the lake in keeping it cool, the mercury will continue between 65 and 70 this afternoon.

Tonight and tomorrow will continue about the same as yesterday, cool and sunny but with increasing cloudiness tomorrow night, resulting in scattered showers late in the evening or early Sunday morning.

Escanaba wasn't the coolest spot in the peninsula last night with a recorded low of 55. Houghton's mercury dipped to 43, which is among the lowest readings in the country except for the mountain areas.

Wards Dispute To Be Settled?

Efforts to settle the Hoyer and Baur bakery labor dispute appear "hopeless", James Despins, federal mediator of Green Bay, said here yesterday but the U. S. conciliator offered a ray of hope that settlement of the Montgomery Ward dispute may be attained soon.

About 35 persons are affected by the bakery strike which started last Friday over a wage dispute. The company proposed to reduce wages of sales drivers by $5 per week and inside employees 10c an hour. The company said the reduction is essential because of "competitive inequality".

Prior to the strike the company offered to forego the wage reduction as a means of settling the dispute but the proposal was not acceptable to the union, Despins reported. Since then the company has reinstated its proposal to reduce wages. Despins reported the company has not supplied the union or the federal mediator with account books to substantiate their contention of inability to pay.

A meeting to discuss a possible settlement of the Montgomery Ward dispute was scheduled here last evening but was postponed to Wednesday, July 14, because Despins was called to a Wisconsin city to mediate a labor dispute.

The Montgomery Ward store here has been closed since Oct. 2 as a result of a labor dispute. Union officials indicated last night that prospects for settling the Ward dispute have materially improved.

NEW D-CONTAMINATION SYSTEM—Several Navy ships caught in the radio active "fall-out" from the March 1st hydrogen bomb test escaped contamination by using exterior sprinkling systems which washed them down with clean sea water as they passed through the atomic rain belt. The system was devised by the Navy and an opportunity to put it to a test was found when a half a dozen ships operating around the Marshall Islands explosion site were unexpectedly over taken by the cloud from which radioactive dust and mist fell. 'Reverse Matter' Antiproton Found In Outer Space

By RENNIE TAYLOR . . . AP Science Reporter . . .

SEATTLE (AP)—The first substantial evidence of the existence of stable "matter in reverse" — a particle from outer space which annihilates the basic material of all earthly substances—has been found by a University of Chicago scientist.

This strange bit of matter came to the top of the earth's atmosphere last winter. With tremendous energy it struck an aluminum-covered film pack being carried by a cosmic ray research balloon high over Texas.

The space particle went through the film pack like a bullet through a deck of cards. In doing so it produced a scientifically thrilling sequence of what appears to be a conversion of earthly matter into energy and then a reconversion of this energy into another form of earthly matter.

Hunted For Years
A report of the event was made before a meeting of the American Physical Society here Thursday by its discoverer, Dr. Marcel Schein, one of this country's foremost cosmic ray scientists.

Dr. Schein said the only conclusion he could make so far was that the strange visitor was something which nuclear scientists have been seeking for years — an antiproton.

The term antiproton is an exciting word even among atom scientists. It is their way of describing the basic particle out of which reverse matter presumably is made. Theoretically, an antiproton is the counterpart of "opposite number" of a proton. The proton is the core of the hydrogen atom and the main substance out of which all ordinary matter is made.

When an antiproton and a proton collide they presumably destroy each other. That apparently was what happened, Dr. Schein said, when the space visitor hit the film pack. It collided with a proton in the aluminum covering of the film pack.

Hard To Handle
There is no danger that anyone will corral a lot of antiprotons and destroy the planet. They are too scarce and hard to handle. If they ever are produced artificially they will come only from the biggest atom-smashing machines.

The story of Dr. Schein's particle is told by a picture of tracks made by the debris of the collision.

First the proton and the supposed antiproton vanished and a shower of photons or X-ray impulses appeared. The two particles thus presumably were converted into X-ray energy. The X-rays in turn produced pairs of electrons. This is a common occurrence in high-energy atomic activity.

Sightless Pair Will Be Married

By BOB HOLTON

CORRY, Pa. (AP)—Howard Collins says he just knows Gladys Camfield will be "beautiful" when she walks up the church aisle here tomorrow to become his bride.

Gladys says Howard will be the "Most handsome" man in the wedding party.

Howard and Gladys will never really know. Howard was born blind 45 years ago. Gladys lost her eyesight by disease 28 years ago when she was 14.

The couple became acquainted a year ago through a pen pal club. They exchanged letters—in Braille.

Six months ago they met in Lock Haven for the first time. Four months later they became engaged and last month announced the wedding date.

"I never really thought I would ever get married," Howard confessed.

"But somehow when I received Gladys' first letter I had the feeling she was something special in my life."

Howard is a tall, thin man with square shoulders and a lean, handsome face.

Gladys is a trim brunette with pretty features and an abundance of poise.

The couple will live in Lock Haven with Collins' mother, Mrs. Bertha McKinney.

Howard and Gladys each receive $50 a month blind pension and Howard earns a small living caring chairs.

material substance rather than energy, there was a double conversion, first from matter to energy and then back to matter.

Dr. Schein calculated the energy of the space particle at 10 million billion volts. Nothing remotely approaching that energy ever has been recorded from direct observation of a single cosmic ray particle, Dr. Schein said.

Lady Fiddler, 65, Says Her Talent Is Worth Million

By MARTHA COLE

LITTLE RIVER, Tex. (AP)—Take a tentative scratch, a short whine and then roll into it—That's fiddling.

"It takes old people really to fiddle it up," says Mrs. Beatrice Bane of Little River. She's 65.

"I was given a talent I wouldn't take a million dollars for," she said. "I've been playing the fiddle since I was 9, years old back in Indian territory in Oklahoma."

"I can play religious pieces that can make your hair rise."

"I don't know one note from another. But I can hear a tune one time. If I like it, I go around humming it and inside three days I can fiddle it—it'll be that long coming to me."

Mrs. Bane is a thin little gray-haired woman with quick motions. She and her husband live on a farm near Little River.

She's one of the few women who enter the old fiddlers contests held every year in Texas.

Her husband, C. C. Bane, 68, can play the fiddle too.

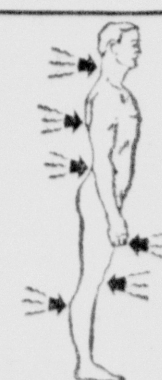

At the Fourth of July celebration in Beiton this year, Bane won first place and his wife won fourth in the old fiddlers contest. But at Temple earlier this year, she beat him.

Rutted Roads No Attraction
For Ludington Park Guests

THE popularity of Ludington Park is completely unrelated to the condition of the roads leading into the park.

Presumably the City of Escanaba has some definite plans for improving the roads in Ludington Park but it is a painfully slow process. Last year the city constructed a new road—and a fine one, we must concede—into the beachhouse area, but the roads leading into the park from Lake Shore Drive are atrocious.

Escanaba residents who take their out of town friends to Ludington Park to enjoy a picnic or to the beach must apologize for the condition of the park roads over which they must travel. Deep holes are prevalent and, of course, the dirt roads are unattractive even when they are in good condition.

Frankly, we don't know what plans, if any, the city has for road improvement projects at Ludington Park but certainly if the schedule does not call for blacktopping the roads in the very near future—within a couple of weeks—the street crews should drop everything to patch up the existing dirt roads in the park. They are embarrassing to our local residents and they must surely be a subject of scorn to our visitors.

Words, Wit & Wisdom

By William Morris

A New York reader sends along the following item from the correspondence column of a local newspaper.

"Your charming editorial 'The Loyal Lilacs' was a delight—except for a slight blight.

"From one lover of lilac to another, I call to your notice that there is error in your plural. Sounds odd, doesn't it? But the fact is there are no lilacs—only lilac! I believe you will find that the dictionaries so decree. Probably because of their fundamentally multiple nature, for no single blossom blooms alone, the plural of lilac is actually lilac.

"If I may be permitted to enjoy this little chuckle at your expense, it is only to catch up a bit on the score of all ye editors who have blue-penciled my humble scribbles in the past. This is the first time I have had the privilege of editing an editor, and I trust you will look upon my comment in the constructive spirit with which it is offered."

"My first reaction," says my correspondent, "was one of dismay. All my forty years I have looked forward to the first blooming of lilacs in the spring. To speak of 'blossoming lilac' around our house seems to me stilted and artificial. Have I been wrong all these years?"

No, dear lady, you have not. But the author of the letter of reprimand is certainly in error. The dictionaries most certainly do not "decree" that there is no such thing as a plural form of lilac.

All good dictionaries are careful to enter irregularly formed plurals of nouns. Check the word "genus," for example, and you will find immediately following the entry word some such parenthetical notation as (pl. genera). If there were no plural form of lilac, the entry would read "lilac, noun, sing. & plural"—indicating that both singular and plural forms are the same. But no standard American dictionary so enters the word so the incapable conclusion is that "lilacs" is entirely correct.

One wonders how this writer, so complacent in her utter misinformation, could ignore the numberless instances of poets singing the praises of lilacs. The most famous poem Amy Lowell ever wrote was simply "Lilacs." And who can forget Walt Whitman's "When lilacs last in the dooryard bloom'd."

The Doctor Says . . .

No One Lotion Is Cure
For All Types of Itching

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

"My problem is body itching," writes H. M. "It is better than it was five years ago but still not well. I use skin oil which gives some relief but I would like to cure it."

The attitude expressed in this letter is discouraging no matter how much one sympathizes with the writer.

One would think that nearly everyone knows that itching can result from a large number of different causes and that inexperienced self-treatment is not only unlikely to cure but might allow the underlying condition to go on to a point where it was more difficult to treat than it would have been at the beginning.

SOME PEOPLE itch all over after bathing. The sensation may last up to half an hour or more, but is relieved after the clothes are on for a while.

The skin has an entirely normal appearance. Winter itch is a closely related condition in which people complain of severe itching all over the body when undressing for the night or just after retiring.

It is absent when the weather is mild. The skin appears normal except for what-ever scratch marks may be present.

The seven-year itch, or scabies, is another cause of skin itching which must be considered.

This type of itching comes from a parasite which burrows into the skin. Treatment for scabies is aimed at destroying the parasites.

Ludington Park is a tremendous asset to Escanaba, as we have indicated numerous times in the past. It is a large and beautiful park. But to reach its potentially it is necessary that park roads be in good condition.

The park is used daily during the summer months by many hundreds of bathers and by many additional hundreds of picnickers and others who just like to stroll along the park.

The City of Escanaba is promoting a street improvement program and much progress is being developed towards that end. It is unfortunate that the city does not lead the way by improving its park streets.

Free World Can't Afford
More Red Triumphs

IT should be clear to us all that a Communist victory of major proportions now impends in Indo-China. Any chance that the French might somehow gain an advantageous truce has gone glimmering.

The French assured this result by withdrawing their forces from the southern third of the vital Red River Delta, with 2,500,000 of that area's 8,000,000 population. Seldom has so much been given a foe by default.

The Communist triumph at Dien Bien Phu is modest by comparison. The delta area yielded contains the largest towns lost to the Reds in the entire eight-year war.

In any truce negotiations between the French and the rebel Viet Minh, it had been assumed the French probably would bargain away the Red River region in return for firmer control over southern Viet Nam and the other Indo-Chinese provinces of Laos and Cambodia.

But by evacuating the richest part of the delta, France would seem to have destroyed its principal bargaining power. This suggests that the Communists will be able to enforce almost any kind of truce they desire.

That makes it unlikely that the French will be left with a position that would invite the development within Indo-China of a strong defense line to be supported by some possible Southeast Asian alliance of free nations.

If any such line is now to be drawn, prospects are that it will be outside the soil of Indo-China. Just where is another story. Speculation hardly would be profitable at this moment.

What is important for all of us in America is to recognize the magnitude of the approaching Communist victory. It will be the biggest forward strike for World Communism since the Reds conquered China in 1949. For everyone agrees that Indo-China is the key bastion barring the way to all Southeast Asia.

Thus the year 1954 will record that another tragedy befell the forces of freedom in the world.

Twice before in the 20th century, free men have suffered such tragedies to occur until they faced the menace of final defeat. Then they rose up and smashed the enveloping tyranny.

Will they do it that way again? Or will their luck run out this time? There cannot be many more big losses to communism before we shall have to seek answers to these painful questions.

You'd be surprised if you knew how many couples get along fine because the wife has a will of their own.

A lot of drastic steps will be taken this summer—on dance floors!

Lets tip the cops off right now that the public parks are the public's.

Caution and care will keep forest fires from being as destructive as picnickers.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Viciously important American policy involving the eventual possibility of war has been debated in the Senate recently under a two-minute rule. It has also been sandwiched in between memorial tributes to a dead senator.

Some senators have protested that a two-minute limit on debate was no way to consider the most important Senate move toward isolation since the little band of irreconcilables bolted Woodrow Wilson and defeated the League of Nations.

It was at five minutes of midnight July 1 that Senator Knowland of California announced that Sen. Hugh Butler of Nebraska had died. In deference to Mr. Butler the senators, weary from debating the tax bill, went home.

Usual Senate custom is to adjourn for one day following the death of a senator. But next morning at 10, GOP leader Knowland boiled a tribute to Senator Butler down to a few brief words, after which Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Senate Democratic leader, rose to pay tribute, not to the dead Senator Butler but to Senator Knowland.

In an unusual oratorical embrace between the two senators who are supposed to lead opposing political parties, Johnson referred to the previous day's threat of "the distinguished majority leader the senior senator from California" that the United States should cut off all funds from the United Nations if Red China was admitted. And Johnson proceeded to back up Knowland in his bolt against Eisenhower-Dulles policy that the executive branch of the government should not have its hands tied in regard to Red China or anything else.

"I welcome the statement made by the distinguished majority leader yesterday," said Johnson of Texas. "It was profound. It was forthright. It was typical of the man we have come to know and understand and respect."

The tributes to the late Senator Butler seemed completely forgotten as the beaming Knowland rose to reply:

"I wish to express my appreciation to the distinguished minority leader, and also to commend him for the very statesmanlike and, I believe, very sound position he has taken."

MORSE REMINDS

Finally Senator Morse of Oregon got back to the deceased senator from Nebraska.

"It had been my hope this morning we would pay the highest respect we could pay to the memory of Hugh Butler by recessing immediately."

Morse proceeded to pay his own tribute to Senator Butler, after which he thrust a jarring, vigorous dissent into the exchange of orchids between Knowland and Johnson.

"I do not share the view that the speeches of the majority leader and the minority leader on foreign policy have been of such tremendous importance or value," said the outspoken senator from Oregon.

"What disturbs me," summarized Morse, "is a growing attitude that if we cannot have our own way, and if the United Nations does not follow a course of action which we think it ought to follow, then we will retire from the United Nations."

"I happen to be one who believes that even if outvoted in the United Nations it is important that the views of a free America always be spoken in the forums of the United Nations."

Morse said that he too was against the admission of Red China into the U. N. But he added:

"We had better be on guard against the calls of going it alone, because the danger is that if we heed those calls we shall be going it alone, in which case we shall soon find ourselves in a third world war."

JOHNSON HECKLES

Senator Johnson, who sometimes shows a certain amount of oratorical cowardice did not tangle with the rapier-tongued Morse. But later, when Lehman of New York, a stellar senator but not fast on his forensics field, supported Morse, Johnson rose to heckle.

Accusing Lehman of putting words into his mouth, Johnson interrupted him, then claimed that Lehman was interrupting him, challenged Lehman to answer the question of whether the American people would disagree over withdrawing financial support from the U. N. if Red China were admitted.

"I oppose the admission of Red China with all my heart, force and might," said Lehman, "but that does not mean we should forever close the door to consideration of this matter any time in the future."

Finally, after Johnson had bullied Lehman further, Senator Morse came to his rescue.

"I think the senator from Texas is entitled to an answer from me to the question he put to the senator from New York," said Morse.

PICK UP YOUR MARBLES

"I wish to say that if the United Nations ever made the terrible mistake of admitting Red China, the American people would not favor withdrawing from the United Nations . . . because they know that sometimes in the Democratic process decisions are lost by a majority vote. And the American people do not believe that if you cannot have your way you should pick up your marbles and go home."

Commerical Airline Pilots
Learn How To Operate Jets

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

MOODY AIR FORCE BASE, Ga.—(NEA)—The U. S. Air Force is speeding the day when air travelers will be able to fly in jet liners.

It is giving the chief pilots of the commercial airlines its special jet aircraft indoctrination course for the rapidly approaching time when they will be operating their own jets.

Part of the goal of this unique program is also to iron out some of the problems which have arisen in many areas around the country where increased military jet operations overlap the commercial airways.

It's a relatively short course. But it gives the commercial pilots at least 10 hours of actual flying in jets plus a summary of some of the special problems of jet operations including navigation, weather evaluation and traffic control.

AF Major Preston B. Hardy explains the program:

"The day is coming when the commercial airlines will be flying jet aircraft. And because the Air Force has had more experience with jet flying than any other organization we feel that it's partly our responsibility to see that the lines have the advantage of some of that knowledge."

In the past year, as military jet flying has expanded to enter the already-crowded airways over many of the metropolitan areas, some difficulty has come up on assigning landing priorities. In the past the airlines, with schedules to meet, got first priority on landing when more than one plane was waiting to come in to a field.

However, in view of their extremely rapid use of fuel, jets have been getting the right-of-way over the commercial planes. And in some cases this has irked airline traffic men.

On top of that many of the airline pilots have made reports that they thought the way the jets had to land constituted a danger to commercial flying.

A major result of this course is the clearing up of most of these misunderstandings.

Capt. John O. O'Neil, chief pilot for Colonial Airlines, says: "Now that I have flown jets and have learned about some of their problems, I realize why they have to land as soon as they arrive at their airport. They use fuel too fast to permit them to keep circling."

"And I think I know that the fears of commercial pilots that they might be hit by fast descending jets are groundless. Since I've flown a jet aircraft I realize that it can be landed in heavy traffic just about like any other plane without diving in and endangering other nearby planes. I'm going to write a report about this to all of our pilots in hopes of easing their minds."

Capt. A. E. Sabo, chief pilot for Lake Central Airlines which serves the mid-West, says he intends to give a series of lectures to all of his pilots when he returns on the fundamentals of jet flying which he learned in the course.

The flying instructors here are astonished at how quickly the seasoned commercial pilots pick up the jet technique. "But it really isn't so surprising when you realize that most of the men taking the course have in the neighborhood of 14,000 hours while most of us have about 500 total flying hours," one of the instructors says.

When the chief pilots of all of the airlines have been put through the course, a group of Civil Aeronautics Authority traffic control men will be put through certain phases of it.

A major effort of Moody AFB is the instruction of instrument flying to all Air Force pilots. The commercial pilots who come here are given a brief indoctrination in the newer phases of instrument flying as developed by the Air Force.

All of them have expressed praise at the tremendous advances which have been made in the training techniques for instrument, all-weather flying and in the improvements in the instruments themselves.

Atlas Of Universe
Is Being Prepared

WASHINGTON—The first section of an unparalleled atlas of the universe, six years in the making at Palomar Observatory in California, will be published for astronomers and research institutions in 1955, the National Geographic Society and California Institute of Technology announced today.

To be issued in three or four annual sections beginning next year, the atlas fulfills a gigantic task assumed by the National Geographic Society-Palomar Sky Survey in 1949. Mapping of most of the visible heavens, out to the frontiers of man's present telescopes, has been highly successful, Dr. John Oliver La Gorce, president of the Society, said.

New photographic materials and techniques, teamed with Palomar's 48-inch "Big Schmidt" telescope-camera and the giant 200-inch Hale telescope, have already produced many important discoveries, including comets, nebulosities and star clusters. The telescopes are owned and operated by Caltech and the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

$2,000 Atlas

By its very nature the atlas will be one of the most expensive ever published. Its price, covering only publication costs, is expected to be between $1,600 and $2,000 per copy, depending upon the number of purchasers.

It will include a total of 1,758 photographs, each 14 inches square covering all the sky visible from Palomar Mountain—about three-quarters of the entire sky. Negative prints on double-weight photographic paper will be precise copies of the original glass plates exposed with the Schmidt camera. This instrument penetrates the heavens to a depth of more than 500 million light years, or 3,000 billion billion miles (3 followed by 21 zeros).

Plans are to distribute the atlas in three or four sections at approximately one-year intervals, starting in 1955. It will be made available at a price that covers only the cost of production and handling of the prints.

A fixed price cannot be stated at present. Estimates based on current expenses, however, indicate a price of $2,000 if 50 copies of the atlas are ordered in all, and of $1,600 if 100 copies are ordered. These figures do not include Sky Survey costs. The plates and other supplies used in the Survey and the salaries of the personnel required are provided by the National Geographic Society, while the observing time necessary to take the negatives for the Survey is provided by Palomar Observatory.

Only one printing of the atlas is planned. This will include only the number of copies for which orders have been received by the Mount Wilson and Palomar Observatories at Pasadena, California, before October 1, 1954.

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Skipper Humphrey, 12-year-old son of Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D. Minn.), has just averted embarrassing his father politically and also getting himself in trouble with the anti-trust division for establishing a combination in restraint of trade.

Skipper and two of his pals, Joe and Hope Liebersohn, publish a weekly paper, The Coquelin (street) News, which sells for one cent a copy. Small ads cost two cents. Some time ago the News made an agreement with one of its competitors, the Coquelin Sun, dividing up their neighborhood, promising not to raid each other's territory.

An editorial in the Coquelin News has now disclosed that "the Sun just broke their agreement by getting subscribers in our area. By that example you can tell what kind of management they have . . . Some of their news are very old. One news item appeared in the Coquelin News four papers ago. In fact most of their news items wouldn't be considered newsworthy in the Coquelin News. And the way a lot of their items are worded, they sound like the parents way of talking. This editorial is just the way the staff feels."

Fortunately, the Coquelin Sun is suspending operations for the summer season. This will make prosecution for operating a cartel impossible, and Senator Humphrey won't be accused of fostering monopolies during the coming political campaign.

A TAPPED DIPLOMATIC grapevine from Geneva records one reverse-English apocryphal story that went around there as the great peace conference blew up. It concerns the return of Russian Foreign Minister Molotov to Moscow. Talking to Premier Malenkov, Molotov reported on the latest European appraisals of the Army-McCarthy hearings in Washington.

The premier is then supposed to have observed: "About this Amerikanski McCarthy, I don't like his objectives. But I admire his methods."

THE GREAT HASSLE in Congress over whether to change the atomic energy law to make the chairman the principal officer of the Atomic Energy Commission, instead of just another member, puts the present chairman, Adm. Lewis L. Strauss, in a peculiar position. If the law were changed, he would become this principal officer. Three other members of the commission have strongly opposed any such shift of power.

Five years ago, when he was just one of the five members of AEC, Admiral Strauss may have had different views on this subject. Testifying before the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, during the isotope export investigation, Admiral Strauss then said in explanation of his disagreements with other members of the commission:

"It was the occasion of a good deal of grief to me, but I feel and I think they understood that I believed and they believed that the function of a five-man commission as opposed to, let us say, the idea of a single administrator, was the idea of the Congress in obtaining divergent points of view. I felt strongly on that subject, and I felt it my duty to maintain it."

U. S. INFORMATION Agency Director Theodore C. Streibert really had some tough questions thrown at him at a National Press Club luncheon.

One question was, "Do you expect Senator McCarthy and Chief Counsel Roy Cohn to be of much assistance to you in the future?" Mr. Streibert had no comment on that one.

He did say, however, that the "Voice of America" broadcasts to foreign countries had carried both sides of the Army-McCarthy row. And in case anybody wanted to investigate, they had a file to show how impartial they had been in covering it.

MSC Begins Concentrated Study Of Potato Problems

Grading Will Be Analyzed

By BURDETTE B. ASHLEY
Associated Press Farm Writer

A special concentrated study of the Michigan potato, its production, storage and marketing, has been undertaken. The project is a joint one of MSC extension service and growers who have put up $4,000 of their own money to help finance it.

The money will be used to hire an assistant for Robert S. Lincoln, veteran Emmet County agricultural agent, so that Lincoln can give more time to the potato study.

He has been working on phases of the potato problem with growers for many years. But now he can go at it more intensively.

One phase of the study will have to do with grading potatoes for, among other things, chip production. Michigan has some of the largest chip manufacturing concerns in the nation.

An advisory committee from MSC, including growers and representatives of the potato chip industry, will help guide Lincoln's study.

Nineteen-year-old Paul Rambard of Centerville has three enterprises going, any one of which could be a full-time job. He's a farmer, nurseryman, and retailer.

Paul is the owner and operator of a $25,000 evergreen nursery. That was the value of his sales and nursery stock at the close of last year's business.

But he also operates a 78-acre farm on shares with his father, Leslie, who devotes all his time to his electrician's trade.

Paul's customers all come to him. He markets his shrubs, garden crops and poultry from his own front door.

The St. Joseph County youth holds the Future Farmer of America's state farmer degree. In addition to all his other work Paul, with his father's help, is building himself a two-bedroom home.

By and large successful city business men, who operate big farms specialize, but Oscar Webster, president of J. L. Hudson Co., a Detroit department store, is an exception. Like the store he heads, his Lakefield Farm near Clarkston, is a diversified undertaking.

The livestock program on the 1,100-acre, mostly hilly farm includes 50 registered Holstein dairy cows, large flocks of registered Oxford and Hampshire sheep, and a herd of market hogs.

Crops supplement the livestock production, with pasture and hay leading. Small grains nurse along new seedlings of grass and legumes, but potatoes are a cash crop.

The farm has its own dairy plant for pasteurizing, homogenizing and bottling its milk product.

Lakefield is among the 11 herds in the U. S. continuous herd test for 25 consecutive years. It also pioneered in Michigan in use of a hay crusher and in mow drying of hay.

Judging School For 4-H Club Girls Set For Thursday

A judging school for girls belonging to 4-H Clubs in Delta county will be held in the dining hall of the Upper Peninsula State Fair at 1 on the afternoon of Thursday, July 8.

Girls engaged in clothing, foods or candy projects from all over the county are expected to be in attendance, states Miss Ingrid Teravonen, club leader who will have charge of the meeting.

Three club members from each project group will be selected to represent Delta County at the 35th annual Upper Peninsula Roundup at Chatham, on July 30.

The meeting Thursday, however, will have for its chief purpose the teaching of project judging to the members who attend. In this teaching it is hoped by the sponsors that the girls will become better acquainted with the finer points in project endeavor and thus be able to make constructive of their work.

A similar meeting for boys engaged in 4-H projects will be held in the near future.

Pine Trees Can Be Pruned Now

Farmers who are growing red and Scotch pine trees for the Christmas trade should be getting ready to do the annual pruning job, suggests Joseph Heirman, county agricultural agent.

Pruning usually pays big dividends, points out Roy E. Skog, Michigan State College extension forester for the Upper Peninsula. When trees are symmetrical, with dense foliage, they will bring the highest prices on the Christmas tree market. And if plantation trees are not pruned, only one-third of them may develop naturally into saleable trees.

Skog says that pine trees can be pruned successfully only from about the first to the last week in July. That's the time when new buds are forming and the new height growth is not quite complete. If pruning is delayed until after the new growth has hardened, the tree may not set new buds. He presents these suggestions:

In general, trees are pruned by cutting back some of the new tip and limb growth. This reduces the space between the whorls of limbs, making a more compact tree. Pruning also stimulates the setting of a larger number of buds. That means more foliage.

Pruning should begin when trees are about two feet tall and continue every year until they reach marketable size. Trees that are growing symmetrically and compactly need not be pruned, however.

An irrigation system has nearly as many uses as a farm tractor, claim Michigan State College agricultural engineers.

Dairy Expert At Round-Up

In these days of high priced feeds and the ever narrowing spread between the cost of production and the price the farmer receives, no dairy farmer needs to be told that the matter of economical and practical feeding for production is one of the most important problems he has to face.

For that reason the announcement that Dr. Carl F. "Shorty" Huffman, dairy cattle feeding authority will attend and speak at the annual Upper Peninsula Round-Up, at Chatham, should be an inducement to dairy farmers of this area to attend.

Dr. Huffman, who will be featured at the afternoon dairy program on Friday, July 30, will include his widely heralded "Roamin' in the Rumen" story.

During about 30 years of dairy cattle feeding research work at Michigan State College, Dr. Huffman's findings have received world-wide acclaim. Dairy farmers of Michigan have saved many feed dollars as the result of practices discovered by him and his research.

Feed problems that apply particularly to Upper Michigan will be stressed by the speaker.

Another feature of the afternoon dairy session will be a farmer's panel discussion. Problems of harvesting, storing and feeding grass silage will be discussed in full.

Joseph Heirman, county agricultural agent, suggests that hearing Mr. Huffman would more than justify a day away from the farm on July 30.

C. F. HUFFMAN, nationally known dairy feed expert, will speak at U. P. Roundup at Chatham on July 30.

Calves Should Be Kept Off Pasture, Says County Agent

By J. L. HEIRMAN
(County Agricultural Agent)

Don't turn young calves out on pasture! Grass in spring and early summer is about 85% water. Calves up to 10 months of age do not have their digestive system developed to take care of large amounts of pasture. The calves cannot eat enough of the pasture to keep growing and maintain weight. Then too, the flies give them trouble when they are out of doors.

It is best to keep calves off pasture and feed them a little grain and dry roughage. An exercise lot is good if calves can get under cover when they want. Always provide plenty of water for the animals to drink.

It hardly seems possible that it's time to make hay, but it is! Looking over some of the fields along the road last week, one could find alfalfa starting to bloom. To get the best, hay should be cut early. Alfalfa should not be over one-half bloom when cut. Timothy and brome should be cut after heading but before blooming. Weather the past week hasn't been very promising for haymakers.

The latest information on potatoes is interesting. The early commercial crop is estimated at 58 million bushels. That's 19% less than last year. The late spring commercial crop is estimated at 35 million bushels or 25% less than in 1953. We hope to have information on the late crop early in July. We do not want to get over excited but it looks better for the growers in 1954.

Approach the nest cautiously with a DDT bomb. Hold it about six inches from the opening of the nest and let them have it full blast for a minute or two. Some wasps will fall out of the opening but in no condition to do any harm. Place a paper sack over the nest, nudge it loose and bury or burn it. This will prevent any wasps from reviving and trying to get even with you!

Husband Won't Take Lie Test

CLEVELAND (AP)—County investigators reported today Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard had refused—for the present—to submit to a lie detector test on the bloody slaying of his attractive 31-year-old wife.

County detective Carl Rossbach made the disclosure as the handsome young osteopath prepared to return to his lakefront home to reenact details of the killing last Sunday.

The detective said after three hours of questioning Dr. Sheppard at suburban Bay Village Hospital Thursday night, he asked this question:

"Will you submit to a lie detector test?"

He said the husband of the slain woman answered:

"I understand that instrument and in my emotional state and as sick as I am, it would show some disturbances... I might later on."

Dr. Sheppard is suffering from neck and other injuries which he said were suffered in battling his wife's killer or killers. His family and their attorney blocked detailed questioning until Thursday, citing his physical condition.

Rossbach said he was not satisfied with the answers the 30-year-old physician gave to many questions and added "We're as much in the dark as we were before."

Discipline Dropped Against Peninsula Conservation Chief

LANSING (AP)—State Conservation Director Gerald E. Eddy today dropped further efforts to discipline Bernard A. Stephansky of Marquette, chief conservation department law officer in the Upper Peninsula.

While all principals refused to discuss it, the implication was strong that the State Conservation Commission had refused to support Eddy in appealing the State Civil Service Commission appeal board's decision to reinstate Stephansky to the post from which Eddy suspended him Feb. 9.

Stephansky was suspended on recommendation of a one-man grand jury which conducted an investigation of alleged fraud and misconduct among Upper Peninsula conservation employees.

The grand jury said there was grounds for firing seven employees. Eddy said also he will not discipline conservation officers Stephen and Michael Kukura of Crystal Falls who invoked Fifth Amendment against self-incrimination in refusing to testify at Stephansky's hearing.

Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard advised Eddy that the refusal of the brothers to testify was justification for their dismissal because as peace officers they had no right to information of wrong-doing.

"The appeal board pointed out their right to refuse to testify and said nothing about their obligation as officers," Eddy said. "I am ready to call it quits. I'm going to let someone else carry the ball." Eddy emphasized that he never had been given the grand jury testimony on which to back up the disciplinary action requested by the grand jury.

He secured the resignation of one of the seven, Chester W. Bonney, in charge of the Baraga headquarters, cleared another, and invoked lesser disciplinary measures against four others. None of these appealed.

Permission To Revive Detroit-Cleveland Boat Service Asked

WASHINGTON (AP)—The newly organized Michigan-Ohio Navigation Co. formally asked permission Thursday to revive Detroit-Cleveland passenger boat service.

The company, in a statement to the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC), said it anticipates a $2,500,000 business in a 14-week season.

The service between the two cities had gone on for nearly 90 years until, in 1951, the Detroit & Navigation Co. quit the operation.

Michigan-Ohio Navigation, headed by J. Lee Barrett, former manager of the Detroit Tourist and Convention Bureau, said it would use a former ocean freighter, the Marine Star, now being converted to a passenger vessel at Muskegon. The plan is to make her a nine-deck luxury boat. She has been tentatively named the Aquarama.

Hunt For Kidnap Killer Fruitless

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Police broadened their search today for the brutal killer who kidnaped and murdered Judith Ann Roberts, but little progress was reported.

Detective Lt. Chester Eldredge, chief of the homicide bureau, said police "have no definite suspects."

Renewed questioning of members of the child's family and other witnesses led police to believe the 7-year-old, blue-eyed Baltimore girl may have been kidnaped from her bed as early as midnight Tuesday. The time previously had been fixed at 1:10 a.m. Wednesday.

Police sent out a pickup order for a teen-age boy who disappeared from his home in the neighborhood where the murder victim was kidnaped. The youth had been involved in a case of child molestation and left his home shortly before Judith was kidnaped, police said.

Postal Workers Voted A Raise

WASHINGTON (AP)—Breaking a federal pay logjam, the House Post Office Committee today voted a 5 per cent pay raise for a half million postal workers.

The increase, carrying a minimum $200 a year increase, was an administration-backed compromise introduced by Chairman Rees (R-Calif.) after the administration and post office workers ran into a deadlocked dispute over wage hikes.

The compromise bill also carries authority for the postmaster general to overhaul postal job and salary schedules and send a reclassification plan to Congress by next March 15.

The reclassification plan, opposed by organized postal groups, would take effect 60 days after it is sent to Capitol Hill unless voted down by either House or Senate.

Breaking of the deadlock over postal pay raises clears the way for the committee to act on related increases for an additional million civil service workers. A similar 5 per cent hike is expected to be approved.

A majority of the committee, overriding Chairman Rees, previously voted out a bill for a 7 per cent postal pay raise but with no provision for reclassification of post office jobs and salary schedules. It also carried a $240 minimum and $480 maximum.

Miss Koutnik, William LaPalm Exchange Vows

Honeymooning at points in Michigan and Canada are William A. LaPalm of Escanaba and his bride of Saturday June 26, Anna Mae Koutnik, who were married at a 9 a. m. nuptial mass in St. William's Church in Menominee.

White and pink peonies were on the altar and white satin bows with white bells marked the pews. The Rev. Oliver O'Callaghan officiated. Mrs. Roger Tenerovicz, cousin of the bride, was organist. Mrs. Richard Barley sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," as the bride placed her bouquet on the altar of the Blessed Mother.

Pleated Tulle and Satin

French lace, pleated nylon tulle over net and satin fashioned the gown worn by the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Koutnik of Route 2, Wallace. The fitted bodice had a portrait neckline outlined in the pleated tulle and the long sleeves were of lace and net. Three tiers of French illusion formed her veil which was caught to a crown of rhinestones and seed pearls. She carried red roses with white carnations with a lace handkerchief belonging to the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Leonard Rheame of Detroit. Her pearl necklace was the gift of the bridegroom. Mr. Koutnik gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Dolores Cooper, cousin of the bride, was the honor attendant, wearing a coral floor length frock of net over taffeta with a coral hat. She carried white daisies with a coral lace handkerchief made by the bride's grandmother. Miss Muriel Wos was the aide in an identical frock of lemon yellow net over taffeta with Miss Rose Ann Panske, who wore lime green. They were matching hats and carried daisies with handkerchiefs matching their dresses. Joyce Velich was her cousin's flower girl and was attired like the bride.

George Cody, nephew of the bridegroom was best man. Kenneth Koutnik, brother of the bride, and Cletus Wagner were attendants and James Koutnik and William Spencer ushered.

Garden Breakfast

Breakfast was served on the lawn of the Koutnik home to the bridal party, out of town guests and family members. White wedding bells decorated the trees. The bride couple received 450 guests at a reception in the afternoon and early evening at the Bohemian Hall where a dance was held from 9 to 1 a. m.

Mrs. Koutnik wore a coral silk dress with the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Rheame wore an iridescent coral and gold taffeta dress. Both had white accessories and yellow and white carnation corsages. The bride's grandmother was attired in a print dress with white accessories and a like corsage.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. LaPalm will be at home at 4622 West Maypole, Chicago. The bride, a secretary for the Jackson Storage and Van Company in Chicago, is a graduate of Menominee High School. Her bridegroom is an employee of the Chicago & North Western Railway.

Buy either white or brown eggs. Remember that the color of the shell has nothing to do with the flavor or nutritive value of the egg.

Prison Chaplains Get Cooperation

GRAYLING (AP)—The State Corrections Commission has ordered prison administrators to integrate chaplains into the general prison rehabilitation program.

Wardens were instructed to include the chaplains in regular staff meetings and to provide them with adequate working space.

The commission also instructed Corrections Director Gus Harrison to ask the Legislature for money for chapels to be devoted entirely to religious activity at each state prison.

Commission Jessie Jai McNeil of Detroit said there was a possibility that if the Legislature lagged in providing money for chapels, public subscription campaigns might be started.

Meeting at the newest corrections-conservation camp near here, the commission received an application from Rep. Walter G. G. Nakula (R-Gladwin) to establish a new camp in his district.

The assignment of two crews of 10 trusty prisoners from the Ionia Reformatory for general conservation work in Ionia and Montcalm counties was approved.

The commission set its next meeting for Aug. 10 and 11 in Lansing.

Teacher Fired For Joining Reds

WAYLAND, Mass. (AP)—Miss Anne Hale Jr., 46, who claims she is a descendant of Pilgrim John Alden, has been fired as a public school teacher for having held membership in the Communist party.

The School Committee voted 2-1 to fire her Wednesday night. The dissenting vote was cast by Chairman William A. Waldron, who immediately announced his resignation as chairman until after the town elections next March.

The second-grade teacher, under suspension since last spring, was charged with being unfit to teach, conduct unbecoming a schoolteacher and membership in the Communist party.

Her attorney, Oliver S. Allen, said he has not decided yet what future action he will take in Miss Hale's behalf.

Miss Hale admitted she was a Communist from 1945 to the latter part of 1950 but said she never advocated the overthrow of the government by force and violence.

Senators Explain Moody Aid Offer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The eight Democratic senators who pledged their campaigning abilities to former Sen. Blair Moody said they would not fight against Moody's primary election opponent.

Patrick V. McNamara, Moody's rival for the Democratic senatorial nomination, had protested to each senator by telegram that their action was "unbelievable."

The eight senators offered their aid when Moody was struck by a heart attack and virus pneumonia while campaigning in upper Michigan.

The AFL Building Trades Council also protested to the senators, terming their action "interference." McNamara carries AFL endorsement in Michigan. Moody is endorsed by the CIO.

Sen. Magnuson (D-Wash.) said: "I didn't know he (Moody) had a primary opponent and certainly would not interfere there."

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont.) said he had never heard of McNamara until his telegram arrived.

Sen. Monroney (D-Okla.) said he knew of McNamara's opposition in the primary: "But all we did was to wire our regrets to Blair and offer to explain the Democratic program to the voters of Michigan while he was sick. We are all friends of Blair's and regard him highly as a candidate."

Other senators offering aid to Moody were Kennedy (D-Mass.); Jackson (D-Wash.); Lehman (D-NY); and Douglas (D-Ill.).

Douglas said: "I am an old friend of Moody and know that he is qualified to return to the Senate. I have assumed that he would win the nomination. Of course I'll work in any way for whomever wins."

Secret Cove Just Right For Small Boy To Fish

By ROBERT E. VOGES
Outdoor Writer

LANSING — Nearly every large lake in Michigan has its secluded "secret cove"—the ideal place to initiate a small boy into the joys of fishing.

Sometimes it gets boring fishing a large lake. Especially for a five-year-old boy. Like a big city, the big lake lacks the feeling of friendship and intimacy.

Bear Lake, in Kalkaska County, has an almost circular, tree-ringed cove. There's an entrance small enough to be blocked by swinging a boat sideways.

Get Well Hooked

To the five-year-old that was the "secret cove"—much more exciting than the large lake.

It got so the five-year-old would become very indignant when other boats penetrated his personal fishing paradise. Especially when they had motors.

"Scaring all our fish away," he would grumble.

The shallow cove, like most of its type, was lush with reeds, weeds and lily pads and swarming with small pan fish.

The rock bass were an especial success. They would swallow the bait whole and be hooked five enough so even an excited five-year-old could swing them into the boat.

After the first day, when they had to be taken home "to show mummy" most of them went back into the cove. Especially the sunfish.

"They're not so pretty when they're dead," the five-year-old explained.

Plenty To Watch

There was a family of turtles, too, that could generally be found sunning on a log. They would splash off into the water, submerge, and then come up for a curious look at the visitors.

There were dragonflies and other brilliant insects buzzing over the water to be watched.

"They won't bite us," the five-year-old explained, although he sounded a little doubtful.

Toward evening came the row home with the fish suitable for showing off to an admiring mummy and to be eaten for breakfast.

The big lakes are fine for the big fish and big fishermen but the "secret cove" is tailored just right for the small boy apprentice.

Guard Tops Mill, Ties For Second

Inland's 11-8 thumping of Fords, coupled with a 10-7 National Guard victory over the Paper Mill Thursday evening at Central Park, moved the Guardsmen into a tie with Fords for second-place in the City Softball League.

Inland, winning their first contest in league play, came up with five markers in the third and two in fourth to score the victory. An error, Don McGregor's double, a walk and a Herb Peterson two-baser started the third. Harold Rogers and Earl Tufnell finished up with a stroll and a single for five markers.

Fords pecked away at Tufnell's offerings but could not move out in front. They tallied singletons in the first, second and fourth, and notched three in the fifth and two in the seventh.

Three markers in the sixth were enough to assure Ed Doyle the victory for the Engineers. Warren Wilson led off with a walk and went to third on a bunt, Bill Holm pushed Wilson home with a fly that was dropped and George Danko singled. Francis Rochefort produced another run - scoring drive.

After jumping off to a 2-0 lead in the second, the Millers added two in the fourth and fifth and another in the sixth but could not obtain the last three off Doyle. Jim Gouin absorbed the loss.

Police Investigate Thefts, One Car

State Police Thursday began investigating a breaking and entering complaint, a report of pilfered gasoline and a stolen car case.

Seven-hundred gallons of the fuel were reported taken from Landerman's gravel pit 10 miles northwest of Steuben. The thefts are supposed to have occurred during the past week.

Bob Hoar of Deer St., Manistique, told the troopers that his cabin on Big Murphy Lake, Inwood Township, was entered June 26-27. Six tools were taken from the partially finished building.

Entrance into the cabin was gained, police disclosed, by pushing a west window which was locked, and breaking away the window-casing.

City law enforcement officers are also conducting an investigation for a dark-green 1942 Chevrolet sedan, reported stolen July 4 from Fred Lundberg, 702 West Elk St., Manistique. The license plates are RT 2585.

2 Non-League Contests Set For Saturday Night

Road Crews Plan 4 Jobs

Four projects are on the docket of the Schoolcraft County Road Commission for this month and the next two. Superintendent Albert J. Ackerman announced Thursday. The undertakings are in addition to regular maintenance work on state and county roads.

Calling the county roads in "fair" shape, Ackerman revealed that stabilizing will be done on M-94 between Aldrich Lake and Jackpine Lodge. The gravel surface will be treated and improved by a gravel, clay and windrolling process.

Following the County Road Commission meeting Tuesday a contractor or county crews will change grades and gravel and blacktop old U. S. Route 2 between Manistique and Cooks. This work will be started as soon as possible.

Two miles of River Road in Manistique Township is due for a grade raising and will be prepared for blacktopping. A Hiawatha Township backroad will be graveled by county crews, Ackerman hopes to have all this work done by fall.

Maintenance work consists of mowing, dragging and chloriding county and state roads. In addition the county handles cleanup and garbage details along the thoroughfares.

Governor's Staff Short On Wages

LANSING (AP)—Twenty sad-faced employees of Gov. Williams' office learned they not get paid for three days work—unless there is some budgetary sleight-of-hand.

Lawrence L. Farrell, Williams' executive secretary, was summoned shamefacedly to the governor's press conference to admit that a bookkeeping error had robbed the civil service employees of the office of $1,561 in pay.

"I don't know how we'll do it, but we'll take care of it somehow," Williams said.

Farrell explained the mixup this way. He said the governor's office asked the Legislature for $134,821 for the fiscal year which ended last Wednesday. The Legislature allowed $133,249, he said.

Farrell said that a bookkeeper, whose pay check suffered as a result, spread the $134,821 erroneously over the salary budget for civil service employees. After the books were closed for the fiscal year, the bookkeeper discovered there wasn't that much money left by $1,561.

The pay of Williams, Farrell and Paul Weber, the press secretary, were not affected because the Legislature specified their salary in separate items.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Hooper U.P. Junior Golf Champion

With four consistent rounds of 40-39-40-40 for a 36-hole medal of 159, slightly built 15-year old Jack Hooper, Iron Mountain, captured the second annual U. P. Junior Golf tournament championship from a field of 36 contestants here yesterday.

Consistency was the word for young Hooper's play the entire day. His card of 159 consisted of 1 pars and 15 bogeys for a 15-over par tally for 36 holes. He did not have a birdie nor a double bogey, and he started out each round with 5-4-3 par-par-par. Another evidence of Jack's steady play is the fact that he collected his par five each time on the long 532-yard sixth hole.

Thus, "Hoop" earned the right to captain the Upper Peninsula four-man team in its bid for honors in the state junior golf meet in Jackson, Mich., Monday and Tuesday, July 12 and 13.

The five-foot, seven-inch 120-pound Iron Mountain champion was co-captain of his high school team last spring climaxing three seasons of interscholastic golf competition. Starting as a caddy at Pine Grove Golf club in Iron Mountain, Hooper has been playing golf since he was 11 years old. He will be 18 on Aug. 20.

Shooting a highly commendable 48-45-56-52—201 John Wellman, 12-year-old Escanaba, won the Upper Peninsula Junior Golf Class B title at the Escanaba Golf club yesterday in the tournament sponsored by the Escanaba Daily Press and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

For the second consecutive year, handsome Don Murwin, of Menominee, was runnerup. He was "bridesmaid" to Bill LeMire by the margin of a single stroke last season when he three-putted the 36th green, and in the 1954 meet he trailed Hooper by three strokes with rounds of 39-41-41-162.

Tied for third and fourth were Francis Grandleis, Ironwood, with 81-85—166 and Fred Green, Marquette, at 80-86—166. Fifth and sixth places wound up in a deadlock also, Bob Berry and Jim Lightbody, both of Marquette, each shooting 167. Berry staged a fine comeback to win a place. After a morning 88, he came back with 79 in the afternoon.

It was an even more remarkable comeback that netted Jim Sundalius, of Gladstone, a spot in the first 10. Opening with a dismal 95, Sundalius got his game under control after lunch to post a 41 and a 38. His 38 was the lowest nine-hole score of the tournament.

Only Escanaba youth to make the first 10 was Jerry Martin of Highland who hit 87-88—175. Other qualifiers were Bob Vauhkonen, Sault Ste. Marie, 173; Glenn Winters, Iron Mountain, 174, and Gary Labreche, Menominee, 176.

Dave Lilja, Iron Mountain, just missed the select circle. He fired 43-39 in the afternoon after opening with 48-48 in the morning. His 178 was two strokes off the pace.

Cuff notes: In all probability, Jack Hooper, Iron Mountain; Francis Grandleis, Ironwood; Fred Green, Marquette, and Jim Lightbody, Marquette, will represent U. P. in the state junior golf tournament in Jackson next Monday and Tuesday . . . Don Murwin, Menominee, runnerup, has a fulltime job in a paper mill and can't make the trip . . . It is possible that both Bob Berry and Lightbody of Marquette will go, which will give the U. P. five representatives.

Tourney sponsors will finance this group but five others are eligible for the state tourney if arrangements can be made some way to send them . . . If some enterprising local group or individuals are interested, it would be nice if Escanaba's two qualifiers could compete in the state meet . . . They are Jim Sundalius, Gladstone, who shot a 41-38—79 yesterday afternoon, and Jerry Martin, Escanaba Highland.

Only 11 birdies were shot during the tournament . . . Gary Labreche and Arnie Pichette, both of Menominee, birdied No. 1. Tom Hogan, Escanaba; Fred Fenske, Houghton, and Sundalius got birds on No. 2 . . . Charley Ferries, Houghton, and Jerry Martin got ducks on the short third . . . Martin also had the only bird on the fifth . . . Fred Green, Marquette, was the only one to break par on the tough sixth . . . Bob Berry, Marquette, and Fenske birdied the seventh and eighth respectively.

Most interesting and unusual outcome of the whole meet was the battle between 11-year-old Tom Davis and Dan Martinson, both of Escanaba . . . They played 36 holes against each other and shot identical scores . . . Each shot 130 in the morning and 122 in the afternoon . . . That's one for the books! JGW

Hooper's consistency paid off in the 36-hole medal test. A graduate last June of Iron Mountain, young Hooper will lead the U. P. team in quest of team and individual honors in the state junior championship in Jackson next Monday and Tuesday. Pictured at the right are, left to right, Frank Laurent, of Menominee, and 12-year-old John Wellman, Escanaba, the runnerup and champion respectively in Class B competition, the division for those 14 and a half years old and younger. Schoendienst Has Hit Safely In 27 Games

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals is approaching the National League consecutive game hitting streak record. The switch-hitting second baseman singled in four trips Thursday night against Cincinnati to extend his skein to 27 games, the longest in the majors this season.

The National League mark is 37 consecutive games, set by Tommy Holmes of the Boston Braves in 1945. Joe DiMaggio holds the major league record of 56 games, established in 1941.

STEPHENSON —Alton Cowan, former coach at Onaway High School, has been named head football coach and physical education director at Stephenson High School, the board of education announced today.

Cowan is a graduate of Morrisville College of Sioux City, Iowa, where he earned three varsity letters in football, one in baseball and one in track.

At Onaway he was head coach in football, baseball and basketball for two years. Last year his football team won five against three losses and his cagers won 13 and lost 4, winning the North Star League championship. Cowan is a graduate of Alpena High School where he starred in football, basketball and track.

Cowan, who succeeds Francis Cappaert as head grid coach of the Eagles, is married and has two sons. He is enrolled in summer school at the University of Iowa.

Giants Retire Larry Jansen

NEW YORK (AP)—Larry Jansen, one-time star pitcher who helped the Giants win the 1951 pennant received his unconditional release as a player today. He was immediately signed by the Giants as a pitching coach at the same salary—believed close to $22,500.

To replace the 34-year-old right-hander, the Giants brought up Al Corwin, another right-hander, from their Minneapolis farm club of the American Association. Corwin has a 6-4 record with the Millers.

A bad back made Jansen of little use this season. He won two and lost two but he failed to complete any of his seven starts this year.

The 6-2, 190 pound father of seven children joined the Giants in 1947, following his purchase from the San Francisco club for $25,000. He won 21 and lost five to lead all National League pitchers that year. He never dropped below 15 victories until 1952 when the first signs of the back injury became evident. He split 22 decisions that season and dropped to 11-16 in '53.

Harnies Top Merchants 3-0 To Move Up In Softball Standings

Harnischfeger continued its bid for the lead in the American League softball race last night by decimating the Merchants 3-0 in a tight pitching duel.

The Merchants' loss left Deils at the top of the standings this week and that team will have the honor of facing the visiting Compton Cuties in an exhibition feature Saturday night, July 24.

Harnischfeger's victory moved it up to a knot for second place with the Merchants.

Snap Losing Streak

The Northland Breads snapped their losing streak by clipping Paper Mill 5-2 in last night's opening game.

Pat Moran fired a classy game against the Merchants, scattering three singles and belting a homer in the second inning to give the Harnies their second run of the game. He fanned five batsmen.

Harnischfeger scored in the opening inning after Merchants hurler Vern Johnson walked the first three men up. Charley Camps came in with the run that proved to be enough for the win.

Singles by Joe Ricci and Tod Butler in the third provided the Harnies with their third run off Johnson who gave up only four hits but walked five batters.

Harry Lancour collected two of the Merchants' hits. He spoiled Moran's bid for a no-hitter with a single with two out in the fifth inning.

Pitchers Stingy

Pitchers were also stingy with hits in the first game. Les Kamin allowed only four while hurling the Northland victory. Roy Breitzman gave up three from the Paper Mill mound.

Northland jumped off to a three run lead in the first inning when Tom St. Germain, Bob Dufour and Angie Hirm scored on two walks and a single by Tom Dufour. Bob Dufour added a run in the fifth when he singled, advanced to second on a sacrifice by Don Scott, stole third and came in on a fielder's choice off the bat of Hirm.

Three of the Paper Mill hits were triples, whacked by Breitzman in the second, Gene Verhamme in the fourth and Don Le Houillier in the seventh.

Clairmont Moves Up

Clairmont Transfer moved into fifth place in the league ladder by blanking Rapid River 6-0 on a twohit gem by John Baker who fanned two and issued only one walk. Baker allowed only three Rapid River runners to reach second base.

Clairmont collected six hits off Jack Tackman and scored one in the first, three in the third and one each in the fifth and seventh to win going away.

In the National League Westby's capped its fourth in a row by edging Anderson Brothers 5-4 with Dick Anderson tossing the win. Westby's broke a 4-4 tie in the top of the seventh inning. Mike Aker's triple for Westby's was the only extra base hit of the game.

Giants Hand Brooklyn Sixth Straight Defeat

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

Not since they "blew" the flag in the dog days of 1951 have the Brooklyn Dodgers been at such a low ebb. Within a space of 10 days the tired and dreary Dodgers fell from the National League lead to a poor runner-up spot, 6½ lengths off the pace.

Old age, injuries, weak hitting, sloppy pitching, sloppy fielding and Giant bats all contributed to the Dodgers' sharp decline.

Whether the Dodgers can right themselves is anybody's guess.

Battle Themselves

First, they have to contend with a "hot" New York Giant team. To add to their confusion, the Dodgers reportedly are doing all the battling among themselves.

After Brooklyn had dropped its sixth straight to the Giants Thursday 11-2, pitchers Russ Meyer and Don Newcombe reportedly almost came to blows in the clubhouse and had to be separated by teammates. Both players denied it, however.

Newcombe admitted he questioned Meyer about a pitch Russ threw which hit Monte Irvin of the Giants in the seventh inning. Irvin, who barely had escaped being hit with the previous pitch, became angered at what he called a "deliberate" duster and called Meyer several uncomplimentary names, among them "gutless." It took some fast interference by the umpires to avoid further complications.

Not Tea and Crumpets

"What does he (Irvin) think he is?" Meyer growled. "Does he think he is a privileged character that we can't throw at him? They throw at our fellows. This is baseball, not tea and crumpets."

Once again it was Willie Mays who led the Giant charge. The spectacular center fielder smashed his 29th and 30th homers to drive in five runs. It gave him four homers in the three-game set and nine in 12 games against Brooklyn pitching this season.

Ruben Gomez, the Puerto Rican screwball pitcher, limited the Dodgers to seven hits and fanned eight for his eighth triumph. Hours later, Gomez registered at a hospital for a tonsillectomy to be performed today.

Only four other games were played Thursday. Cleveland's American League-leading Indians boosted their margin over the idle New York Yankees to four games, defeating Baltimore 4-1 behind the seven-hit hurling of Bob Feller. Homers by Jim Hegan and Wally Westlake were all the runs Feller needed.

Cards Edge Reds

Detroit's Steve Gromek dropped Chicago seven games behind Cleveland, shutting out the White Sox 2-0 on seven hits. The Tigers' Ray Boone drove in one run with a double and scored the other. He also had two singles.

The St. Louis Cardinals bunched four singles in the second inning to defeat Cincinnati 2-1 and gain a tie with the Redlegs for fifth place. Harvey Haddix chalked up his 13th triumph.

Randy Jackson walloped his 17th home run early in the game, then singled in the 14th inning to drive in the run that gave the Chicago Cubs a 9-8 victory over Milwaukee. Rookie Bill Tremel pitched seven innings of scoreless relief for his first major league victory. Bob Buhl was the loser.

Drive Opens To Keep Athletics

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A drive among Philadelphia business leaders to whip up support for the Philadelphia Athletics has already received two pledges totaling $55,000 worth of tickets.

Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr. called some 90 business and civic leaders into his City Hall office Thursday and dumped the problem of keeping the Athletics' franchise here squarely in their laps.

It was estimated that some 420,000 paid admissions are needed in the remaining 32 home dates for the club to break even financially.

Thursday's pledges — $50,000 of which came from the president of a drugstore chain-represent about one eighth of the total needed.

Roy Mack, executive vice president of the Athletics, repeated previous denials that the club would be sold or transferred to another city.

Last Ditch Stand Arrives For Sox

By CARL BELL

CHICAGO (AP) — This is it for the Chicago White Sox — a real last ditch stand.

The badly crippled American League third - placers' four-game series with the front-running Cleveland Indians includes single games tonight and Saturday, and a doubleheader Sunday.

Chicago held the top rung four weeks ago, now is seven games off the pace. A repetition of last weekend's doings at Cleveland — when the Indians swept four in a row — would leave the Sox a virtually hopeless 11 laps behind. But they could jump to within easy striking distance of first place by a sweeping of their own.

Yanks Will Watch

Whatever the pale hose can accomplish in the way of winning in the three-day span also will be welcomed by the New York Yankees, now sandwiched between Cleveland and Chicago, four games out of first.

Sox manager Paul Richards will cool off the tribe, which has won 11 of its last 12 games. That would be righthander Bob Keegan, who has 11 victories against three defests.

Richards intends to follow with lefties Jack Harshman (4-4) and Billy Pierce (4-5) and righthander Virgil Trucks (11-5).

Houtteman Gets Nod

Al Lopez has nominated righthander Art Houtteman (8-4) to hurl the opener for the Indians.

Until losing 2-0 to Detroit Thursday, the White Sox had rolled over Baltimore and Detroit despite the fact that four of Richards' top hands were benched with injuries.

Much of their momentum came from rookie first baseman Ron Jackson who got seven hits, including two home runs, in his first major league times at bat.

Ferris Fain and Phil Cavarretta, the No.1 and No. 2 castabattens, remain on the injured list, along with infielders George Kell and Cass Michaels.

In 12 meetings this year, the Indians have won seven times; the White Sox five.

Here Is Your 'Dream House' Of Tomorrow

People anxious to purchase this modern, prefabricated all-electric home will have to wait until at least 1964. It was designed on the assumption that the average family of the future will be larger, have a greater income and will live in more distant suburbs. Designed by architect Elliot Noyes and General Electric, the home will have four bedrooms and a motorized living room mounted on a giant turntable that can be turned to face in any direction. Other dramatic features will be glass walls, central air conditioning and built-in kitchen devices.

A stressed-skin roof in the shape of a porticoed dome covers this prefabricated house model.

Garage at right is roofed in almost the same manner as the house.

Partridge Season To Be Cut Again

LANSING (AP)—Small game and upland bird hunting regulations will be set at the July 19-20 meeting of the State Conservation Commission at Haven Hill.

Game workers have recommended that no changes be made in the hare and rabbit seasons and have suggested only slight changes in squirrel hunting regulations.

Maximum pheasant and partridge seasons have been recommended for all of the Lower Peninsula with the exception of Em-met County. The county may be closed to pheasant hunting again this year at the urging of local sportsmen.

Game workers asked that the Upper Peninsula partridge seasons again be cut from the maximum of 41 days allowed by law to 32 days. An Oct. 1-Nov. 1 season is recommended.

The Conservation Commission was urged to close the sharp-tailed chicken season in the Lower Peninsula. A limited season was allowed last year but biologists said field surveys showed the birds are scarce.

Other recommendations on upland birds include requests to continue the Menominee County pheasant season and to provide a 32-day season on sharp-tailed and prairie chickens in the Upper Peninsula to conform with the partridge season.

Big Lion Parade Held In Drizzle

NEW YORK (AP)—The Lions had a whale of a time Wednesday during their 5th Avenue parade—despite downpour and drizzle which sent thousands of spectators running for cover.

Some 15,000 members of the international service club put on a spectacular show. Police estimated that some 50,000 persons watched the proceedings between intermittent rains.

Only the cagey Lions from Arkansas were equipped to cope with the inclement weather. Umbrellas are part of their regular costumes.
The rest of the marchers took their soaking in high good humor.

Out of two dozen automobiles, most of them were roadsters. The riders would open the car doors once in a while to let the water out.

One closed car contained the oldest Lion, 97-year-old Fred Benke of Niles, Mich. He occasionally peeped out and received an ovation from the crowd of his fellow Lions.

A kiltie band from Michigan piped away with merry abandon, making a special hit with "The Sidewalks of New York."

Some 40,000 Lions and their families from 35 nations are here for the 37th annual convention which ends Saturday.
